

Kia ora! Welcome to our latest round up of all things ceramics in Aotearoa. This issue includes some reflections from people who attended our touring potter workshops, details on how to take part in the National Open Studios in November, and the opportunity to advertise in our publication, Ceramics New Zealand magazine.

We have confirmed our AGM for 17 November - please join us online!

As always, our amazing Regional Council Members have gathered details of all the events happening around the country. If you have something you'd like included in our next newsletter just email it through to newsletter@ceramicsnz.org.

Ngā mihi,
The CANZ Council team

---

Touring Potter in August - Kwak Kyungtae

Huge thanks to everyone who helped make our touring potter programme with Kwak Kyungtae and Marco Minetti a massive success! From the studio managers, hosts, chauffeurs, and more, everyone went above and beyond to make sure Marco & Kwak were welcomed in Aotearoa. Workshop and demo participants all agree it was a valuable learning experience, and in some cases, completely transformative!

Thanks to Holly Morgan and Martha Matthews for writing about their experiences in Coromandel and Queenstown with Marco & Kwak. Read more about these workshops on our website.

Read more

---

Annual General Meeting - 17 November

2024 AGM

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Sunday 17 November
6-7pm
Online via Teams

To join and find out more visit
www.ceramicsnz.org

Please join our 2024 AGM where we will report on our 2023 activities and finances on 17 November 2024 at 6pm. The AGM is also a time when we elect Council members, set membership fees for the following year, and nominate people for lifetime membership.

We want to hear from you – so please plan to attend!

Register today and attend online via Teams

Nelson Clayweek is nearly here!

clayweek.co.nz 2024 @nelson.clay.week

NELSON CLAY
WEEK NELSON
CLAY WEEK
NELSON CLAY
WEEK NELSON
CLAY WEEK
NELSON CLAY

WORKSHOPS TALKS EVENTS MARKET

ARTS COUNCIL NELSON  SEPTEMBER 28 — OCTOBER 04    POTTERS CLAY NELSON

Nelson Clay Week
28 Sep – 4 Oct at various venues across Nelson
www.clayweek.nz

Find out more

Ceramics New Zealand National Open Studios 23rd & 24th November 2024

We already have over 30 people who have signed up for our first ever Ceramics New Zealand National Open Studios in November!

The dedicated website openstudios.ceramicsnz.org is up and running and ready for people to start adding their listings if you have already registered.

Registrations close 1st October so get in now!

Register now

---

Regional updates

Northland / Te Tai Tokerau updates

The Quarry Ceramics Awards

Read more

Auckland Tāmaki Makaurau updates

Please check venues for their opening event dates.

Read more

Central North Island Updates

Find out about Uku Hawekes Bay, an upcoming exhibition in Whakatane and plans for the 50th Anniversary of Driving Creek.

Read more

Wellington, Wairarapa, Manawatū and Taranaki Updates

Updates from around the region including the Kilns at Te Horo, Wellington Potters' and more.

Read more

Nelson/Marlborough Updates

Updates from Nelson Clayweek!

Read more

Canterbury & West Coast updates

Latest news from Canterbury & Halswell pottery groups, as well as details of a diverse collection of inspiring, eccentric and beautiful pottery from the 1960s to now will star in the new exhibition Form & Fire at Canterbury Museum at CoCA. Also check out Free Range.

Read more

Otago Southland updates

Latest news from Otago Southland

Read more

---

---

Don't forget to visit the Ceramics NZ Directory and add your listing

Visit the Directory

Advertise with Ceramics New Zealand Magazine

Ceramics NZ Magazine warmly welcomes advertising content from our Aotearoa institutions, galleries, businesses, and centres of education, to be featured in Volume 7, Summer 2024.

Our team has published promotional content for ceramic exhibitions, suppliers, courses, retail stores and more.

As the sole national publication exclusively focused on ceramic practices, we've fostered a diverse and devoted readership and audience for featured content. With high quality production, you can be assured your advertisement will look its best.

We offer ¼ page, ½ page and full page options.

Our content deadline for advertisements is September 30th, with Volume 7 of Ceramics NZ Magazine reaching stockists in early December 2024. Ceramics NZ Magazine is dedicated to championing the phenomenal work of our local artists, ceramicists and uku practitioners. As a tiny publication, we really depend on the support of everyone who advertises with us - thank you for helping us keep the magazine going.

Please reach out with any questions, we look forward to hearing from you!

A call for stockists will go out closer to the print date.

---

Thanks for reading!

Interested in helping out with this newsletter or other volunteering with CANZ? If you have any news or updates you'd like included in our next newsletter just get in touch at newsletter@ceramicsnz.org or get in touch with your local regional council member.

Huge thanks to Judy Chappell for her editorial assistance with this newsletter!

You received this email because you subscribed to our list. You can unsubscribe at any time.

2 Haines Tce
Wellington
Wellington
6021
New Zealand

Powered by  EmailOctopus